

Anja Kharlamova

BNY Mellon London
Vice President

Anja has more than 17 years' experience in the financial services industry, starting her career with KPMG Financial Services, moving to project and corporate finance upon qualifying as a CPA. Anja's IR experience includes both in-house and external advisory roles. During her tenure with SAB Miller as an in-house IRO, she was tasked with expanding the company's global shareholder base, specifically in North America. She subsequently worked with a number of blue-chip companies advising them on IR practices. Anja holds an MSc degree in International Finance from the London School of Economics and Political Science (LSE).
